

European Academy of Nursing Science
Scientific Committee
Helena Leino-Kilpi, University of Turku, Finland/30.12.2011

SCIENTIFIC MEETING 2012

Time: 19.-20.1.2012 (Thursday-Friday)

Venue: Barcelona, Spain
Hospital Clinic de Barcelona
Address: Villarroel 170, 08036 Barcelona
Telephone: + 34 932275400 (www.hospitalclinic.org)

Registration: There is no registration fee.
Registrations by email: Helena.Leino-Kilpi@utu.fi

Participants are required to pay their costs (for travel, accommodation, meals) by themselves.

Accommodation: see the information on the web-page of EANS:
www.european-academy-of-nursing-science.com/

Tourist information: see the information on the web-page of EANS:
www.european-academy-of-nursing-science.com/

European Academy of Nursing Science
Scientific Committee

Scientific Meeting 2012

PROGRAMME

Thursday the 19th of January 2012

Moderator: Helena Leino-Kilpi, Chair of the Scientific Committee of EANS, University of Turku, Finland

Opening of the Meeting (14.00-14.15)

Josep M. Pique, MD, PhD, Chief Executive Officer, Hospital Clinic de Barcelona, Spain

Albert Tort, RN, MN, President of the Nurses Association of Barcelona, Spain

Adela Zabalequi, RN, PhD, Nursing Director, Hospital Clinic of Barcelona, Spain

Ingalill Rahm-Hallberg, RN, PhD, Pro-vice Chancellor, Lund University, Sweden, President of the EANS

14.15-14.45 From FP7 to Horizon 2020: new opportunities in Europe

Albert Barbera, MD, PhD, Scientific Co-ordinator, Institut Investigacions Biomediques August Pi i Sunyer, Hospital Clinic de Barcelona, Spain

14.45-15.15 News from EANS

David Richards, PhD, professor, University of Exeter, UK, Secretary of EANS

15.15-15.45 Importance of international research collaboration; in particular within Europe

Ingalill Rahm-Hallberg, RN, PhD, Professori in Health Care Science, Pro-vice Chancellor, Lund University, Sweden, President of the EANS

15.45-16.15

Coffee

16.15-17.15 Experiences and ideas for international collaboration

A. Decision making and evidence-based patient information in persons with multiple sclerosis – experiences and perspectives

Sascha Köpke, PhD, RN, professor, University of Lubeck, Germany

B. Pressure ulcer classification, risk assessment and prevention

Lisette Schoonhoven, PhD, RN, Senior research fellow, Radboud University Nijmegen Medical Centre, The Netherlands

C. Differences in pressure ulcer care in nursing homes in the Netherlands and Germany

Esther Meesterberends, MSc, RN, Maastricht University, The Netherlands

17.15-18.45 Co-ordination and evaluation of multinational studies

Evaluation of research proposals (17.15-18)

EU-officer (under negotiation)

Tentatively: Maritta Välimäki, PhD, RN, professor, University of Turku, Finland

Being the coordinator of a multinational study – challenges and recommendations

Gabriele Meyer, PhD, RN, professor, University of Witten/Herdecke, Germany

Walter Sermeus PhD, RN, professor, University of Leuven, Belgium

18.45 Closing

20 Dinner

Friday the 20th of January 2012

8.45 Opening

9.00 -10.00 Experiences and ideas for international collaboration

A. Being partner in an international study of Empowering Patient Education among surgical orthopaedic patients

Natalja Istomina, PhD, RN, Klaipeda University, Lithuania

B. Building Bridges across the North Sea; Research and Practice; Patients and Social Networks

Pia Riis Olsen, PhD, Århus University Hospital, Denmark

Caroline Bradbury Jones, PhD, University of Dundee, UK

C. International experience of Best Practice Guidelines Implementation

Teresa Moreno-Casbas, PhD, RN, Nursing and Health Care Research Unit, Ministry of Science and Innovation, Madrid, Spain

10.00-10.30 Coffee

10.30-12.00 Experiences and ideas for international collaboration

A. Collaboration between relatives of elderly patients and nurses in medical wards: testing of Family Collaboration Scale (FCS36)

Tove Lindhardt, PhD, RNT, Copenhagen University Hospital, Denmark

B. The link between health interventions and safety performance

Tziaferi Styliani, PhD, RN, University of Peloponnese, Greece

C. Portraying hope: A study among woman newly diagnosed with gynaecological cancer

Kristianna Hammer, PhD, RN, Associate professor, University of Faroe Island (Denmark)

D. Evaluation of the feasibility and acceptability of an approach to emotional wellbeing support for high school students: A qualitative study

Sarah Kendal, PhD, RMN, Lecturer, University of Manchester, UK

12.00-12.45 Lunch

Lunch-Meeting (open to all): Research collaboration in the care of children- emphasis on psycho-social care

Imelda Coyne, PhD, professor, Trinity College, Ireland ;
Inger Hallström, PhD, RN, professor, Lund University,
Sweden; Sanna Salanterä, PhD, RN, professor, University of Turku, Finland

12.45-13.45

Working in the groups

Groups will be made during the Meeting. The goal is to make suggestions for future international activities of EANS or for international research collaboration

13.45-14.30

Suggestions of the groups (topics/strategic fields/process) for future international activities and research collaboration and general discussion

Moderator: professor Rahm-Hallberg, President of EANS

14.30

Closing

Helena Leino-Kilpi and the new Chair of Scientific Committee of EANS

14.30

Annual Meeting of EANS